Purpose Meets Opportunity

KNOW YOUR WORTH

As big as the world is, as a child your dream was to conquer it.

You believed you could do anything you wanted. What changed? Did the world become bigger with the ages?

Why do you know longer believe you can do anything you wanted to? Life has its way of presenting this world in a view too difficult to challenge or defeat. Our culture, family, experiences, and society teach us boundaries, boundaries that paralyzes our hopes and dreams. Every day we are told what we can and can't do.

What would happen if you discovered that your childhood dreams are possible and you can really conquer the world?

Are you ready to dream again?

In spite of what you have been told, you must learn the very essence of you are and your capabilities. Know who you are and who God created you to be. You are more than what meets the eye. God created you for a purpose. You are unique, there is none like you. You are God's masterpiece.

Knowing who you enable you to live authentically.

PREPARATION & PROCESS

Preparation....

Everything in life takes time, you cannot bypass the process.
There has to be time for you to be prepared to embrace the destiny and purpose God designed for you. Deny self (Self cannot please God), instant gratification leads to an early demise. Recognize and obey those whom God has placed in your path to prepare you.

Learn the language and develop the necessary skills for your destiny. A tailor cannot fix a car using needles and thread.

The Process...

Transition is part of the process, the coming out of one stage to step into another.

Transition is the incubator for transformation. You are transformed from one concept of life and thinking to that which can birth your destiny.

Learn to purge and filter.

Purging frees you from unwanted materials; ideologies, people, places and things that will hinder your destiny.

Filtering allows you to decipher what is necessary for you to keep and what to let go.

Step into the Unknown

Embracing your destiny and fulfilling your purpose requires you to step out of your comfort zone. It requires you to take the risk and challenge the norms of life. Faith and obedience are two important factors. They go hand in hand. You must be willing to go beyond self and allow God to position you at the right place at the right time.

Purpose Meets Opportunity

When purpose meets opportunity will you be ready?

You cannot embrace your destiny unless you have prepared for the day of opportunity. As you learn who you are and the purpose God has designed for you, you are able to step into your destiny with confidence knowing that you have been chosen by God.

Being prepared is what makes the difference when the opportunity comes for you to demonstrate that which you have been destined to do.
