KEYS TO GOVERN YOUR LIFE

NATALEE HENRY

My name is Natalee Henry I am an author, entrepreneur, and motivational speaker who loves helping others accomplish their goals. My purpose is to "empower you to make the right decisions in life." I find purpose fulfilling when I am able to share with you through my writing, social media, video, and audio teachings some of the important lessons I have learned along my life's journey.

In this ebook, I am sharing with you six (6) keys that I have learned that are essential to governing one's life in order to make the right decisions. This is an excerpt from my book "Successfully You, Leadership Training Workbook."

My prayer is that you will find this ebook encouraging and resourceful for everyday life.

I would love to hear from you after you have finished reading this ebook. Please send your email to nataleehenry@seasondestiny.com

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Those who know better must do better.

Just because something is legal and popular doesn't mean it is right for you or Godly.

To whom much is given much is required.

God requires us to use what
He has given us to edify
others.

Owe no man anything
but love.

Love from a pure and sincere heart will guide you in your attitude towards others.

Put things into proper perspective.

Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God. Deal with people according to the nature of the relationship.

Not everyone deserves full access to your life.

Live a life of gratitude.

Always be grateful for the help you receive from others, but don't allow yourself to become obligated. Don't feel guilty for receiving help.

Always honor God in everything you do.

The word of God should be the first and final authority for every decision you make.

CONGRATULATIONS YOU HAVE COMPLETED
YOUR READING

Apply these six key principles to your everyday life and you will be empowered to make the right decisions in every situation.
